Triton College Offering Guided Community Day Trips

Participation is Open to All

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – Experience some of Chicago’s premier and landmark destinations through Triton College’s guided community day trips. Guided by Triton’s experienced tour guides, students and area residents are invited to participate in the following tours:

- Saturday, Feb. 24 – Groundhog Day, Woodstock, Ill.
- Saturday, March 23 – The Blues Brothers filming locations, Chicago Loop.
- Saturday, April 13 – Wrigley Field.
- Saturday, May 4 – The World’s Fair, Jackson Park.

Each trip includes transportation from Triton’s campus to the guided destinations, tickets and gratuities. Cost for a trip is $150 per person, per tour (cost of lunch is not included).

The guided community day trips are hosted by Triton College's School of Continuing Education, a program committed to providing high quality, professional and personal continuing education opportunities for learners of all ages.
