RIVER GROVE, Ill. – The Triton College Alumni Association attended several community events throughout the summer months, such as the River Front Fest in River Grove, the Taste of Elmwood Park, the Village of Elmwood Park Circle Car Show and the Elmwood Park Fourth of July parade.

The association aimed to mingle and build camaraderie with community members at these events, as well as pass out Triton swag.

Tina Lilly, Triton's Alumni Relations director, feels that participating in neighborhood events helps build relationships with others as well as inform the public about Triton.

“It’s amazing speaking with locals who have attended Triton College,” said Lilly. “People love to reminisce about their time that they spent here.”

“This is a great opportunity to join family, friends, neighbors and many Triton College alumni for a fun-filled day,” said Andy Hock, president of the Alumni Association.
